The International Academy of Gnathology, American Section
Congress XXVII
September 17-19, 2015
The Langham Huntington Hotel
Pasadena, California

Thursday, September 17, 2015

Dr. William H. McHorris – Memphis, Tennessee
Gnathology then and now… Reflections on 50 years of practice

Dr. Stephan J. Haney – San Antonio, Texas
Diagnosis-based treatment planning: The problem with problem-oriented planning

Dr. Mark A. Cruz – Laguna Niguel, California
Airway function and dysfunction: It’s relevance to dental and general well being

Dr. Robert F. Faulkner – Cincinnati, Ohio
Occlusion and dental implants… What are the principles for success?

Dr. Markus B. Blatz – Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
A ceramic update in esthetic dentistry

Friday, September 18, 2015

Dr. Jeffrey P. Okeson – Lexington, Kentucky
Evidence-based management of TMD (with a Q&A session)

Dr. David Guichet – Orange, California
Computer enhanced implant dentistry

Drs. Harel & Ziv Simon – Beverly Hills, California
Natural, augmented, or prosthetics gingiva… Which should it be?

Saturday, September 19, 2015

Dr. Henry A. Gremillion – New Orleans, Louisiana
What do we know about bruxism and how does this relate to restorative dentistry (with Q&A session)

Dr. Kenneth M. Hargreaves – San Antonio, Texas
Successful management of acute dental pain

Dr. Michael J. Gunson – Santa Barbara, California
Facially generated treatment planning: Orthognathic surgery and TMJ considerations

Dr. John Burgess – Birmingham, Alabama
Ceramic Materials – What goes where, how to bond, adjust and polish

Reserve Presenters

Dr. Darin J. Ward – Okotoks, Alberta, Canada
Preventive gnathology: Moving forward into the future by revisiting our past

Dr. Michael G. Wiley – Colorado Springs, Colorado
Is it enamel or is it eMax – All-ceramic restorative options

Dr. Robert C. Supple – Albuquerque, New Mexico
Analog to digital: How to make articulating paper “smart”