IAG Membership Dues

The IAG dues cycle has changed

Recently, members of the International Academy of Gnathology, American Section have received annual dues assessments. At Congress XXIII at the Hotel del Coronado, the IAG membership voted to change the dues cycle to a biennial assessment. For both 2008 and 2009, therefore, there will only be one dues assessment (please see the reverse side of this document).

CONGRESS XXIV
SEPTEMBER 23-26, 2009

LOEWS VENTANA
CANYON RESORT

TUCSON, ARIZONA

THERE ARE ADVANTAGES TO BIENNIAL ASSESSMENTS:

1. The continuity of members' subscriptions to the Journal of Prosthetic Dentistry is better controlled
2. The Academy saves on mailing costs
3. The Academy can financially plan better
4. Management of members' expenses will be simplified. (Dues assessments will be mailed to members in even-numbered years. In odd-numbered years, only Congress-related materials will be mailed to members. This plan of "even-numbered years = dues, odd-numbered years = Congresses" will make it easier for both the IAG and its members to track expenses.)

The IAG has one of the lowest dues assessments of any national dental organization. At a very reasonable rate in our new biennial dues cycle, members not only belong to a premier dental organization, they also receive 24 months of the Journal of Prosthetic Dentistry and discounted admission to an IAG Congress, one of the best dental meetings in the world.
